-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 9, it is unclear how the intermediary layer can be a foamed material when claim 1 states that it is a fabric. Applicant is asked to clarify.

Regarding claim 11, it is unclear what Applicant means by using solvent or water to remove the intermediary layer in place of cutting the intermediary layer since the cutting step in claim 1 is for separating the top and base layers and has nothing to do with removing the intermediary layer. Applicant is asked to clarify. It is suggested to amend claim 11 to state --A method for making a three-dimensional embroidery as in claim 10, wherein solvent or water is used to remove the intermediary layer.--

Based on section [0015] of the present specification, it appears that the present invention may have support for an alternative embodiment where the intermediary layer is dissolved to separate the top and base layers instead of cutting the intermediary layer. If Applicant intended for claim 11 to be directed to this embodiment, please note that it is improper to have this embodiment depend from the cutting embodiment set forth in claim 1. However, if Applicant chooses to submit the dissolving embodiment as an independent claim, the examiner will use election by original presentation (MPEP 821.03) to withdraw all claims relating to the dissolving embodiment since the only claims examined in the present office action were directed to the cutting embodiment.

Priority

3. Applicant cannot rely upon the foreign priority papers to overcome the rejection based on JP 2003-328262 to Yakura et al., set forth below, because a translation of said papers has not been made of record in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55. See MPEP § 201.15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

5. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Yakura et al. (JP 2003-328262).

The reference teaches a method for making a three-dimensional embroidery by providing layers of fabric comprising a base layer 10, a top layer 16, and an intermediary layer 18, embroidering a pattern through the layers of fabric with thread 12, cutting the intermediary layer at a height to separate the top and base layers, and removing the remaining intermediary layer from at least one of the top and base layers (abstract and Figure 3).

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 1733

7. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mavis (US 3771479).

The reference teaches a method for making a three-dimensional embroidery by providing layers of fabric comprising a base layer 17, a top layer 11, and an intermediary layer 16, embroidering a pattern through the layers of fabric with thread S, cutting the intermediary layer at a height to separate the top and base layers, and removing the remaining intermediary layer from at least one of the top and base layers (Figures 2 and 4-5; column 2, lines 20-66).
